LOUISIANA CORPORATE CODE RS SEC. 12:223 (A) Every corporation shall keep at its registered office (1) records of the meetings of its members and directors, and of committees of the board, share and membership records giving the names and addresses of the members in alphabetical order by classes and series and the number of shares held by each, and records of its assets, liabilities, receipts, disbursements, gains, losses, capital and surplus; and (2) separate records of all trust funds held by it. Whenever membership is terminated, this fact shall be recorded in the share or membership record together with the date on which the membership ceased, and transfers of shares shall similarly be recorded. (B) The records listed in subsection A of this section may be in written form or in any other form capable of being converted into written form within a reasonable time.

Maintaining records is vital to the existence of all corporations in particular the recording of shareholder and director meetings. If ever sued and requested by the courts, through a subpoena, or IRS via tax audit, failure to comply with certain requirements could cause your corporation to lose its limited liability status "pierced veil." If so, personal liability or exposure could possibly be put on directors and shareholders for failing to document formalities. Limited Liability Companies and Non-Profit Organizations, although treated slightly different than that of other entity types, books and records are highly suggestive for proper corporate maintenance. Companies that do not satisfy certain state requirements may forfeit the limited liability protection provided to owners, and could face administrative dissolution or revocation of the entity status by the state should the integrity of the corporation become questionable. Most states require all corporate entities to maintain books and records of account along with Annual Meeting Minutes. Not satisfying the minimum annual filing requirements in a timely manner causes your company to be in "bad standing" in the state. We assist corporations to avoid potential non-compliance with the above provision of maintaining Annual Meeting Minutes. Please complete legibly, sign, and date the Annual Disclosure Statement form below by providing the following candidate names for the positions listed then submit along with the proper Document Fee of $125 to ensure the processing and mailing back of your corporate documents in a timely manner. Mail payment to the following address: Louisiana Corporate Compliance Business Services Division 7516 Bluebonnet Blvd #158 Baton Rouge, LA 70810.
